"O God, I admit it...I know nothing about self-denial. I don't know what to give up or how or why.

My whole life is about consuming & being consumed...and I am deeply cynical about anything that diminishes your desire for us to CHOOSE LIFE.

And yet...I know that simplifying actually clarifies, spring cleaning sweeps away the junk and garbage that weighs me down, eliminating distraction puts me in touch with what I most deeply want - which is you and your life-changing Wind blowing unencumbered through my life.

O God, Lead me in the letting go of anything that distracts, numbs, keeps me jumbled on the inside. Guide me into uncluttered rooms and wide-open spaces where I can meet you." Amen.
