Kernels of Hope

Here's an update from Ray "the Grain Guy" about the Canada Conference's 'Kernels of Hope' project:

Spring is here and its time to Grow again ! We do have farmers in the prairies just getting on to the land in many areas this weekend. Plans now turn into action! It's the same for our Kernels of Hope project. We have some commitments of real farmers across the Prairies that will grow some acres for people like you and I that may not be real farmers but can participate in a wonderful way by paying for some of the costs of production and using nature to multiply the seeds the farmers plant and using math and connections to multiply the Dollars raised from those crops. We are able to do this through Tearfund Canada (formerly World Relief Canada ) and the Canadian Food Grains Bank and the Government of Canada! In 2018 we are helping people in Wolaita, Ethiopia, Africa to support themselves through training in Conservation Agriculture and Self-Help groups.

To hear more news about Kernels of Hope, follow Ray's blog at: <http://kernelsofhope.blogspot.ca/>

If you would like to financially support the Kernels of Hope project, you can write a cheque to ECCC (memo it Kernels of Hope) and send it to:

Or donate online at www.covchurch.ca

Next Sunday, is our 'Tearfund Canada Giving Sunday'. (formerly World Relief Canada). We, as a Conference, are excited to be a part of Tearfund Canada, as we continue to partner with them through Kernels of Hope.

In addition to Kernels of Hope, there are many other areas that Tearfund Canada is involved in. We're looking forward to sharing about the broader work that Tearfund Canada is doing, as they make an impact in changing peoples lives around the globe.
