Vine and Table, Saskatoon, SK

An intentional community house called the Vine & Table is opening this fall in Saskatoon, coordinated by Thomas & Terri Lynn Friesen. Centrally located in Riversdale, it is a community for young adults who desire sharing good food, daily life, and spiritual growth as we offer mentorship and support in study and vocational exploration. We are urging people with any interest contact us before the application deadline of August 1 as plans for the fall are starting to come together. Another thing of note is that people who live here are eligible to apply to the CBC Legacy Bursary. If you are 'taking some time off' to work, discerning what God might be calling you to, or planning to study at the U of S or SaskPolytec and desire community get in touch with us a info@vineandtable.ca.

Details and application are on our website vineandtable.ca
