

CONFERENCE NEWS

Covenant Youth of Alaska

Angela and I (Marc) greet you from frosty Breton, Alberta, this week! We are back here: pressing on, in faith, as we raise support to join Covenant Youth of Alaska (CYAK). Thank you so much for your prayers!

When we first left Breton back in Aug. 2017, we grieved that we were leaving the ECCC family. So, we are thrilled to be re-united with you as a “serve globally” partner. We find peace and comfort being surrounded by this “great cloud of witnesses”. We hope to be an encouragement to you and your churches as well, as this new partnership develops. You have our prayers, but today we ask for your prayers.

Praises:

- First, we praise God that we have reached 70% of our support goal of USD $6,100 per month. After some challenging weeks in November, a wave of generosity came in December and January. We are thankful for every individual, family, and church that has contributed. God’s provision is surprising and beautiful!
- We also praise Him for the hospitality of others as we’ve traveled and shared our story: old and new friends, churches, small groups, etc.
- Praise for the community that is ready to welcome us back to Alaska: CYAK Staff, Mat-Su Covenant Church & the rest of the Alaska Conference.

Prayer Requests:

- We are boldly asking God to help us reach our support goal by the end of the February. Please pray with us for the remaining 30% in monthly support. He is more than able!
- Please join us in praying for Angela’s visa to come through in time, as well as many other challenges with the cross-border move.
- Pray for a suitable home for us in Palmer, the city where we hope to live permanently. We’ve been in transition for 18 months with three small children. We’re ready for a home of our own!
- Pray also for the upcoming ministry that is waiting for us when we get to Alaska: orientation, cultural competency, & directing Bible camp in June.

Thank you for praying! Feel free to contact us personally. We’d love to connect.

LOOKING FOR...

A while ago, Carol A. gave an old jewellery display cabinet that she had found, to someone here at Malmo - to look at having it refinished for Malmo to use as an archival cabinet. However, we can't remember where it ended up. If you have it, or if you have any information about it, would you please talk to Pastor Randall, Delora or Carol A.? Thanks!

We've printed our history and 2018 stories, in a booklet that is small enough to share the story of Malmo with family and friends. (These are the same stories that were included in the 2018 Annual Report Book).

Help yourself to as many copies as you would like. They're available on the Malmo Info Table.
